A Message from the Chairman –

As we come to the end of another year's activities, I have been reflecting on the "highs" and "lows" for 2007 and keep wondering what we as a Committee and I as your Chairman need to do to keep the "ball rolling" to ensure that our Chapter of the Round Table remains viable.

Certainly, the 2007 "highs" included quality speakers like Bruce Dennett and John Diamond who added a "professional historian" dimension to our meeting presentations. This was balanced, however, by the small attendances at the majority of the meetings. Indeed, it represents a significant problem in inviting quality speakers if our group is extremely small. Any suggestions you might have for me on how we can "lift our game", would be greatly appreciated!

For me, a real "low" were the deaths of two of my great friends who were also members of our Civil War group. I will really miss seeing Alan Winkworth, medico and true Civil War enthusiast with whom I spent many days exploring Civil War sites in America. Pat Boland, a friend from my army days in the 1950s, will be sorely missed by all who valued scholarship in military history matters. To their relatives, I can only say I share your loss.

One of the initiatives that your committee has underway is the planning for our next Conference, scheduled for early 2009. Planned to coincide with the 200th anniversary of Lincoln's birth, this conference will be "bigger than Ben Hur" if our plans come to pass. Members should keep the first half of February 2009 free for this conference.

Lastly, I would draw your attention to the papers enclosed with this Newsletter relating to our Annual General Meeting on November 30. All positions on the Executive and Committee and I mean all, are "up for grabs" and I can assure you that every one present incumbents will not be upset to be "rolled" in the election on that night. Please give consideration for nominating for these positions – we really need new blood!

I hope to see you at the next meeting and at our Xmas Party.

Paul Kensey

Our Next Meeting

Our final regular meeting for 2007 will be held on Monday, November 12 at the Roseville Memorial RSL Club, Pacific Highway, Roseville. The meeting will commence with a bistro-style dinner at the Club from 6pm with the proceedings of the meeting proper to commence at 7:15pm. This meeting will be the second of our "double-barrelled" presentations:

1. "Lincoln – The Devil Incarnate - A Southern Perspective" (David Smith)
2. "Will the Real Abraham Lincoln Please Stand Up" (An Interactive Quiz with four of our Members)

Members can be guaranteed that these presentations will both inform and entertain and complete our 2007 program on a high note!

Our Xmas / End-of-Year Party

The last function for the year is our Christmas /End-of-Year party to be held at our normal meeting venue, the Roseville Memorial RSL Club, Pacific Highway, Roseville, on the evening of Friday, November 30, commencing with our AGM at 7pm followed by pre-dinner drinks and dinner from 7:30 pm.

As noted by our Chairman this function is one for the wives and partners as well as members of the Chapter, so please bring along your "better half", if only to show that there are others who do not share with us a passion for matters Civil War.

The cost for the evening is $35:00 per person (all inclusive) with the evening being subsidised to a significant extent by our raffle and from Chapter funds. Please let Brendan O'Connell know if you are coming as soon as possible but no later than Friday, November 17. Brendan can be contacted either by 'phone on (02) 9449 3720 or by e-mail at secretay@americancivilwar.asn.au. We are looking forward to see you at this Party in the coming weeks.

The Einstein Factor

The popular Einstein Factor quiz show screens on the ABC's Channel 2 at 6:30pm on Sunday nights and is hosted by the quirky Peter Berner and regularly features, as part of its braintrust, the former quiz champion, politician and author, Barry Jones. In the first round of questions each contestant is asked a series of questions in their area of special interest followed by a bonus question which if answered correctly by the brains-trust gains the contestant double points.

In recent times a number of the contestants chose American Civil War battles as their special interest subject. The latest of these was some one who had won previously with his special interest topic being the Battle of Gettysburg. Now, he returns with his choosing the Battle of Antietam as his area for questioning.

Here are his questions – how would you have gone?

Question 1: At the time of the Battle of Antietam who was the American President?

Question 2: Robert E Lee's failure to secure victory at Antietam led to which key country to postpone recognition of the Confederacy?

Question 3: Thomas Meagher led the Union's famed what nationality brigade at the Battle of Antietam?

Question 4: A Union regiment was said to have fought its way across the Lower Stone Bridge with the promise of what rations?

Question 5: Which commander of the First Corps of the Army of Northern Virginia did Lee call his "Old Warhorse"?

Question 6: When Major General Joseph Hooker was wounded command of the First Corps passed to whom?

Question 7: Union fire in the morning of the battle included from that of 20 pounder what rifles named after their inventor?

Question 8: The Confederate troops that confronted Burnside's men at the Lower Bridge were led by which former Georgia politician?

Question 9: Confederate Colonel Stephen Lee famously characterised the Battle of Antietam as artillery what?

Question 10: Which two Pennsylvanian regiments have monuments in Miller's Cornfield where they lost so many men?

Question 11: Acquitting himself with less than distinction, General George McClellan's HQ was at what house?

Question 12: Which Union general exclaimed – "My God, we must get out of this"?

Question 13: The Louisiana brigade under Harry Hays had what big cap appellation?

Question 14: After the battle Lee's Army of Northern Virginia retreated without pursuit to which state?

Question 15: Which priest rode shouting Roman Catholic Church words of absolution to those who were about to die?

Bonus Question.

The Battle of Antietam had the highest number of casualties of any in the American Civil War. True or false?
